

2005- 7 Year for humanity

“ Percolate all that has occurred until it is clear”

Dear friends:

This year is nearly at an end so here are my numerology thoughts for 2005. First, let's look at the year we are leaving behind, it was a doozy!! Since the political arena had all of our attention, I must use it as the perfect example for numerological lessons. The 6 energy governed the planet in 2004 and showed us its greater possibilities and its extreme negative manifestation. It became a year of taking sides and polarization. What was also emerging was and is a deeper understanding of our utter need to take more responsibility for the world we live in, essentially a 6 attribute. We grew up a lot this year.

The glory of the 6 is the expression of unconditional love, and the desire to balance and harmonize what is out of kilter. 6 showed up powerfully for example in the organization MoveOn.org. Their intention is to remind us of our role in society and the power we have if we use it well. They worked tirelessly (like a mother does) to bring harmony to what is clearly so out of balance and they were very effective. (Right after I sent this we experienced the Tsunami; water (6), the great mother and an event that compelled humanity to step forward and express unconditional love.)

Negative 6 is domination, control, having to be right no matter what, resentment, revenge and an unrealistic view of everything. Sound familiar?

There was so much we could not control this past year: the political arena, the war, great suffering of so many people and environmental degradation. We wanted to be nurturing mothers to it all and could not. What we did come to realize is that we can take control of our thoughts and actions and must do just that to a greater degree than ever, otherwise, what are we here for??

That is the question the 7 year will ask us to clarify for ourselves. 7 assists us in our deeper learning, it is “earth school” personified, which is just what we need right now. No other aspect tests us like the 7 because its purpose is for us to learn and learn well. It represents the cross, which means both our spiritual and human selves finding a place of truth in the heart of seeming contradictions. 7 can bring us resurrection or a fresh start after we have done the hard work. Our faith will be tested, no matter what that means to each person. We can develop greater wisdom and deepen our devotion to the Universal Mind of truth. 7 is the mystical teacher, the one who shows us the way but insists we walk the path ourselves. The 7 takes us to our inner crossroad, helps us to dwell there and view life from a much more objective standpoint (6 made us feel so involved and caring we could hardly stand it). Our thoughts will be key. We must have patience and faith, not fear. Let us be willing to see others from our wisdom heart with out blaming or judging and with clear perceptions. This is very challenging when there is so much “wrong” we want something out there to blame, yet we cannot afford that kind of perspective. We must see the emergence of spiritual consciousness that is all around us every moment no matter what.

Negative 7 does things in secret, behind closed doors. The current administration would like to keep doors shut tight and not be questioned. I doubt this will be possible. We are ready to ask hard questions, 7 wants answers. We are faced with big questions, like “can we survive another four years of this madness?” Is it too late for our world to heal? How can we rectify the damage we have caused to the environment? The 7 can help us see the truth and the way. Consciousness is key. This is a time to recognize the tyrants of our own negative beliefs and replace those ideas with awareness, love, compassion and appropriate action. The 7 year affects all of us, it is a Universal idea that each individual works within. As always, we have the choice to enter into relationship with this symbolic teacher, or resist the message and experience the fallout. No one owns The truth yet we have a guidance system within to assist us in knowing our truth and this year will highlight just that.

YOUR PERSONAL YEAR

As you know your own personal year can be anything from 1 to 9. Here is a little taste of the years’ qualities to jog your memory and awareness. Add your day and month of birth (not the year) to the number 7, if the result is a two digit number, add those together and reduce to a single digit, that is your personal year.

If 2005 is a:

1 year for you: Initiate a new and challenging way to help the world. Be a warrior.

2 year for you: Do as Mother Theresa says “do ordinary things with extraordinary love”.

3 year for you: Let yourself express, create and allow spontaneity to be your guide.

4 year for you: Build a stronger foundation under your life by using discipline as a life enhancing experience.

5 year for you: Allow the power of transformation to shift your position or beliefs so you find more freedom.

6 year for you: Bring your life into greater balance and harmony, so that you may help balance the world.

7 year for you: Look deeper inside, take time to reflect, be willing to tell the truth as you see it without expecting anyone else to do it your way.

8 year for you: Manifest your highest ideals into form without distortion, go make money and share it with those in need.

9 year for you: “Ask not what your country can do for you, ask what you can do for your country.”

I will be back to doing readings after January 5. I hope to hear from each of you and provide support for your journey. Be a peaceful warrior, create your life by setting intention and everyday be grateful to have life's power flowing through you.

Love and blessings,
Susan
